

Rachel Eng

Member

Appeals Panel

Rachel ENG is the Deputy Chairman of WongPartnership LLP. Prior to this, she was the firm's Joint Managing Partner.

Rachel has been a corporate lawyer for 25 years and, in her career, she has been involved in banking, unit trusts and funds, M&A, corporate advisory, listings, financial regulatory and corporate governance work. Rachel is recommended as a leading lawyer by numerous independent legal publications.

Rachel was appointed to the Committee on the Future Economy, which is formed by the Singapore government in 2016 to develop economic strategies to position Singapore well for the future. She also sits on the boards of several publicly listed companies, private companies and government controlled statutory boards in Singapore. She is also a Supervisory Committee member of ABF Singapore Bond Index Fund established by the Monetary Authority of Singapore.